

Child exploitation doesn't stop on big birthdays.

Victims need protection –
whatever their age.

If you are concerned about a child's safety, call 101 or 999 in an emergency.

On a train or at a station, text British Transport Police on 61016.

Or get advice from the NSPCC on 0808 800 5000.

childrenssociety.org.uk/lookcloser

Follow the QR code to learn the signs of child exploitation.

#LookCloser

The Children's Society

If something doesn't feel right, it might not be.

Several phones for no obvious reason?
This could be a sign of child exploitation.

If you are concerned about a child's safety, call 101 or 999 in an emergency.

On a train or at a station, text
British Transport Police on 61016.

Or get advice from the NSPCC on 0808 800 5000.

childrenssociety.org.uk/lookcloser

Follow the QR code to learn the signs of child exploitation.

#LookCloser

The Children's Society

If something doesn't feel right, it might not be.

Travelling alone in school hours or late at night?

This could be a sign of child exploitation.

If you are concerned about a child's safety, call 101 or 999 in an emergency.

On a train or at a station, text
British Transport Police on 61016.

Or get advice from the NSPCC on 0808 800 5000.

childrenssociety.org.uk/lookcloser

Follow the QR code to learn the signs of child
exploitation.

#LookCloser

The Children's Society

Exploitation can happen to any child. Anywhere.

If something doesn't feel right, it might not be.

If you are concerned about a child's safety, call 101 or 999 in an emergency.

On a train or at a station, text British Transport Police on 61016.

Or get advice from the NSPCC on 0808 800 5000.

childrenssociety.org.uk/lookcloser

Follow the QR code to learn the signs of child exploitation.

#LookCloser

The Children's Society

You helped me escape child exploitation.

You are the commuter who called to get help.

Step forward – and make a difference.

If you are concerned about a child's safety, call 101 or 999 in an emergency.

On a train or at a station, text British Transport Police on 61016.

Or get advice from the NSPCC on 0808 800 5000.

childrenssociety.org.uk/lookcloser

Follow the QR code to learn the signs of child exploitation.

#LookCloser

The Children's Society

